Dear 2008-09 Club Secretary,

Your Kiwanis club could be exposed to lawsuits that could financially impact its ability to provide needed community service. Information in this brochure can help protect your club in case of a lawsuit.

These insurance policies are VOLUNTARY. Kiwanis International does not require them, but strongly encourages your club’s consideration. Please review the following pages for an in-depth description.

Kiwanis International has negotiated coverage for Directors and Officers Liability insurance with Ace/Westchester. The premium for the insurance is $500, which provides $1 million in coverage. This includes a duty to defend, defense outside the policy limits, and has NO deductible, which is a cost savings to the club. This is a two-year policy, guaranteeing no increase in premium for two years, with the premium being paid in yearly installments. No need to pay for the two years up front; your club can pay at the beginning of each policy year.

Additionally, your club could face theft of funds or member dishonesty, and may be exposed to a wide variety of crime-related losses, including falsified receipts, theft of equipment, petty cash theft, or phony invoicing. The premium for crime insurance is $125 for a $10,000 limit of liability, with a $250 deductible. As with the Directors and Officers liability, if higher limits are desired, they are available.

You are strongly encouraged to read and discuss these issues during your upcoming board meetings and determine whether your club needs the coverages. Should questions arise, please contact Denny Flahault, the Kiwanis International insurance broker, at the Hylant Group, 800-876-0361.

Sincerely,

Lisa M. Heindricks, SPHR
Director of Human Resources and Risk Management

Directors & Officers Claims Example

One Kiwanis club raised money to provide scholarships for children to go to camp. They promised that, based on an essay they wrote, 10 children would be guaranteed to attend camp. They had an overwhelming response to their invitations and chose the 10 best essays. However, they only raised enough money for eight to go to camp. Their parents sued the club for discrimination, for not being able to attend camp.

Crime Claims Example

The treasurer of a Kiwanis club had check-signing responsibility, as well as access to its checking account. During his tenure, he set up a fictitious vendor who allegedly provided services for the club. The club was not discovered until after he had left and the theft was caught doing the same thing at his full-time employment. At this time, he admitted he had established the “vendor for the sole purpose of stealing from the organization.” As a result, the club found out he had stolen nearly $50,000.

Another Kiwanis club set up a little “goodwill” type of store to raise money and developed a no-questions-asked return policy in which merchandise could be returned without a receipt. The volunteer who ran the store took advantage of this policy by altering the books to show false returns and paying himself in cash, and doing so in small amounts so as not to draw attention to the transactions. When the volunteer died unexpectedly, the fraud was discovered by the new bookkeeper. As a result, the club found out it had lost nearly $100,000 over the past four years.

Policy Highlights of Crime Coverage

- Protects the club from theft of funds, and dishonest volunteers, members, officers, and employees.
- Softens the cost to a club for theft or embezzlement and other crime-related losses.
- Protects the integrity of Kiwanians.

Why buy coverage?

- To protect your board and club members from potential lawsuits or claims not covered by other insurance.
- To protect your club’s assets in defense of lawsuits or claims.
- To reassure your volunteer board in its decision-making process.
- To protect the club/assets/funds from theft by third parties or members.
- Provides protection for directors, officers, committee chairpersons, and members for liability arising out of the performance of their duties that may result in claims alleging other than bodily injury or property damage.
- Protects the personal assets of a Kiwanis director and officer.
- Protects the club’s assets.
- Provides reimbursement to the organization to pay back directors and officers for their losses.
- Provides coverage for all members, not just the board members.

What is Directors and Officers Liability?

- Provides coverage for directors, officers, committee chairpersons, and members for liability arising out of the performance of their duties that may result in claims alleging other than bodily injury or property damage.
- Protects the personal assets of a Kiwanis director and officer.
- Protects the club’s assets.
- Provides reimbursement to the organization to pay back directors and officers for their losses.
- Provides coverage for all members, not just the board members.

What is Employment Practices Liability?

- Protects the club against damages for events relating to its member volunteers, employees, and officers, including, but not limited to, wrongful dismissal, harassment, discrimination, defamation, and unfair hiring/firing/practices (including volunteers).
- Provides defense costs associated with responding to related lawsuits.

What is Crime Coverage?

- Protects the club from theft of funds, and dishonest volunteers, members, officers, and employees.
