Dear Kiwanis Leaders,

As a Kiwanis leader, you are aware that Kiwanis has experienced a steady decline in membership since 1992. While we have slowed that decline dramatically over the past three years, we continue to lose more members than we are able to recruit.

Since 2004-05, we have experienced a net membership loss of approximately 2,000 members. While this is a remarkable improvement over the 4 percent to 5 percent annual losses we experienced in the past, this is not performance that will accelerate us toward our 500,000-member goal for "Classic Kiwanis" and our million member goal for the Kiwanis Family.

Included with this letter is a final membership count for the 2007-08 administrative year, broken out by month and by district. This year our membership loss was 2 percent, with the majority of losses in North America. While we are proud of the efforts by all of our leaders, we are especially pleased with the results of our clubs in Asia, Europe, and Latin America.

Asia/Pacific (Region Four) grew by 681 members (or 3.3 percent growth rate). Special efforts by Philippine Luzon (15 new clubs), Taiwan (7 new clubs), and Philippine South (6 new clubs) contributed to this improvement.

Europe (Region Three) grew by 463 members (or 1.5 percent growth rate), and 22 new clubs. Italy-San Marino led the region with 7 new clubs.

Latin America (Region Five) grew by 78 members, demonstrating the highest percentage regional growth rate (of 8.9 percent). The Ecuador District-in-Formation opened three new clubs and grew to more than 500 members.

In North America (Regions One and Two), Montana and New York were two North American districts that achieved net growth during the 2007-08 year. Missouri-Arkansas opened 8 clubs and Eastern Canada and the Caribbean opened 7 clubs.

We have worked diligently to capture all the additions and deletions received from member clubs as of midnight on September 30, 2008. If you discover an error, we invite you to notify us so we can make a correction.

The 2008-09 Kiwanis year is very important for us as an organization. President Don Canaday and his team of Governors and Lieutenant Governors have committed to some aggressive growth plans. Growth Summits are taking place all over the Kiwanis world, and Kiwanis leaders are rediscovering the joy of opening new clubs in underserved communities. This would not be possible without your leadership and support.

Thanks for leading.
