Send a student to Key Leader this spring!

Since the spring of 2005, Key Leader events have been a great success. Here is what some had to say about Key Leader weekends: "It was great to see all of the students come out of their shell and become friends with each other. Their ideas and point of view on things was amazing.... This is one of the best things I have ever encountered with Key Club or any other organization.... This is the most effective leadership weekend I've ever experienced."

You have a chance to have a student from your club or home town attend the Key Leader event in Washington at Camp Brotherhood in Mt. Vernon, May 4-6. Current Key Club members can receive a $25 discount off the normal $160 cost. The event is open to students from graduating 8th graders through those in high school. Think about young people in your club, community, church or family who would love to have this great experience in leadership development; and remember they don't necessarily have to be in Key Club!

With 30 days left to register for the Camp Brotherhood event, we are seeing registrations start to trickle in. I encourage those clubs who have made commitments to be proactive in their recruitment process. As of April 2, we have four student participant applications started; seven student participants placed; two student facilitators placed; and four adults processed. We are on our way to our goal of 60. I would like to see that number pushed up in the next two weeks!

For more details, you can check out the website at www.key-leader.org which is where the students will register. Additionally, you can contact Sylvia Maly, our Pacific Northwest Key Leader Chairperson at sylmaly@cs.com.

Don't delay, space is limited---Register your future leaders today!
